Tasted at the Cru Bourgeois annual tasting, the 2015 Lilian Ladouys offers ripe redcurrant and cranberry scents on the nose, the oak nicely integrated with floral, almost Burgundian scents emerging with time. The palate is medium-bodied with sappy red fruit, quite saline in the mouth with good structure on the finish that might well be closing up for a short period. Cellar this for three to five years and you will have a solid Lilian Ladouys on your hands. Tasted September 2017.
